

The Rembrandt House Museum Amsterdam

Information and Prices 2018

Visit Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn's home and workshop. For twenty years the Netherlands' greatest artist lived and worked in this impressive building in the heart of Amsterdam, now a museum. The Rembrandt House Museum gives visitors a complete Rembrandt experience. With a seventeenth-century inventory as a guide, the house has been meticulously refurbished with furniture, art and objects from that time. The museum has an almost complete collection of Rembrandt etchings and stages inspiring exhibitions about Rembrandt, his predecessors, contemporaries and pupils. The Rembrandt House Museum is also a venue for exhibitions of work by contemporary artists—artists who have been inspired by the work of Rembrandt, their seventeenth-century predecessor. Come and meet him in his own home.

Costs: 100 euro per group, excluding admission.

Tours outside opening hours

It is possible to book tours before opening hours, between 09:00 and 10:00h and after opening hours, between 18:00 and 20:00h. In this case, the group has the museum to its own disposal. For more information, you can contact the museum +31(0)20-5200406 or marketing@rembrandthuis.nl

Costs for a group up to 15 persons: 750 euros, including admission and tour guide.

More persons: 50 euro extra per person.

Group bookings

The Rembrandt House Museum offers voucher contracting party's the possibility to make group reservations for specific timeslots and dates. A group reservation can only be paid by invoice following the visit. Larger groups are split up in groups of 15.

Activities: daily etching and paint-making demonstrations

Throughout the day demonstrations are held in Rembrandt's former house. The paint-making demonstration in Rembrandt's studio shows you how paint was made in Rembrandt's day. The etching demonstrations on an antique press in Rembrandt's etching room show you how an etching is printed.

Venue Hire

Rooms in the Rembrandt House Museum can be rented outside of opening hours for corporate events. For more information, you can contact the museum +31(0)20-5200406 or marketing@rembrandthuis.nl

Museum shop

Our museum shop sells a range of Rembrandt catalogues, books and reproduction etchings, as well as luxury gifts specially designed and produced for the Rembrandt House Museum. There is a webshop as well, at www.rembrandthuis.nl.

Duration of visit

A visit to the Rembrandt House Museum takes approximately 1 to 1,5 hours.

Cloakroom

The cloakroom is unguarded. Small safes are available. Suitcases cannot be accommodated.

Facilities for the Disabled

The accessibility to Rembrandt's old house is difficult for the disabled, due to the many floors and narrow staircases. The exhibition rooms in the new wing can be reached by elevator. There is a reduced admission charge for the disabled (€ 7,50 p.p.). It is not possible to park in front of the museum: A parking place for the disabled is located nearby (ca. 200 m) at Waterlooplein. The museum has a special toilet for the disabled.
